PARKVIEW HEALTH TO UPGRADE TO STREAMLINE HEALTH'S accessANYware® v1.9

Cincinnati, Ohio – July 21, 2011 – Streamline Health Solutions, Inc. (NasdaqCM: STRM), a leading provider of document workflow solutions for hospitals, announced today that Parkview Health has signed an agreement to upgrade to accessANYware v1.9. Under the terms of the agreement, the healthcare system will upgrade to accessANYware v1.9 in six of the healthcare system's hospitals. By migrating to the latest version of accessANYware the medical center will move closer to their goal of ICD-10 compliance and certification for meaningful use, and receive additional functionality for improved efficiencies.

"We are pleased that Parkview Health, a client since 2002, has decided to upgrade to accessANYware v1.9," said Robert Watson, president and chief executive officer of Streamline Health. "accessANYware v1.9 shows our commitment to ensuring our products continue to meet the needs of our clients in an ever-changing healthcare environment. We look forward to our continued collaboration with this leading healthcare system."

Ron Double, chief information officer at Parkview Health, said, "Parkview Health has been successfully partnering with Streamline Health for many years in multiple hospitals within our system. We are looking forward to this release of accessANYware to help our hospitals as they prepare to meet the new ICD-10 code set challenges, while providing additional functionality that will benefit our clinical and administrative staff – and ultimately our patients."
