NantHealth Signs Contract To Add Streamline Health's Looking Glass® Clinical Analytics Solution To Its Cloud-Based Intelligent Clinical Operating Systems

New Multi-Year Term License Contract Includes International Scope

ATLANTA, Nov. 13, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- Streamline Health Solutions, Inc. (NASDAQ: STRM), a leading provider of transformational data-driven solutions to help healthcare providers reduce exposure to risk, enhance clinical, financial, and operational performance, today announced a new multi-year term license with NantHealth, LLC (www.nanthealth.com) for Streamline Health's Looking Glass® Clinical Analytics solution. NantHealth solutions leverage genomic science and innovative device development to advance diagnostics, guide treatment protocols, and transform the way care is delivered across the globe. Streamline Health's Clinical Analytics solution, and its patented cohort study designer, will further enable NantHealth in its quest to use technology to empower physicians to transcend the traditional barriers of today's healthcare system.

"We believe Streamline's Clinical Analytics solution will help NantHealth put care protocol evaluation, comparative effectiveness investigation, and population tracking directly into the hands of healthcare providers around the world," stated Dr. Patrick Soon-Shiong, founder and CEO of NantHealth. "Together our approach will eliminate the need for IT involvement in clinical decision making thereby accelerating the cycle of discovery in the dynamic fields of genomics, proteomics and clinical care."

"We are pleased and excited that NantHealth, a leading force in improving the design and delivery of healthcare around the globe, has chosen to deploy our Looking Glass® Clinical Analytics solution," stated Robert E. Watson, President and CEO of Streamline Health. "NantHealth is well recognized as a global leader of change in the healthcare industry, and we are proud that our Clinical Analytics solution will serve as a foundational capability to help them accelerate the pace of change and improvement in clinical care."
