LANVISION SYSTEMS, INC.

5481 Creek Road
Cincinnati, Ohio 45242-4001

PROXY STATEMENT

The accompanying proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors ("Board") of LanVision Systems, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Company" or "LanVision"), for use at the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders of the Company ("Annual Meeting"). The Annual Meeting will be held on May 26, 2004 at 9:30 a.m., Eastern Time, or any adjournment thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting will be held at the Heritage Room of the Clarion Hotel and Suites Cincinnati, 5901 Pfeiffer Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45242. All holders of record of the Company's common stock, par value $.01 per share ("Common Stock"), on April 1, 2004, the record date, will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. At the close of business on the record date, the Company had 9,030,032 shares of Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote. A majority, or 4,515,017, of these shares of Common Stock will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting.

The proxy card, this Proxy Statement, and the Company's fiscal year 2003 Annual Report on Form 10-K will be mailed to stockholders on or about April 23, 2004.

Voting Rights and Solicitation of Proxies

Stockholders are entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held. Shares of Common Stock may not be voted cumulatively.

The shares represented by all properly executed proxies which are timely sent to the Company will be voted as designated and each proxy not designated will be voted affirmatively. Any person signing a proxy in the form accompanying this Proxy Statement has the power to revoke it at any time before the shares subject to the proxy are voted by notifying the Corporate Secretary of the Company in writing or by attendance at the meeting and voting in person.

The expense of printing and mailing proxy materials will be borne by the Company. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by mail, solicitation may be made by certain directors, officers, and other employees of the Company by personal interview, telephone, or facsimile. No additional compensation will be paid for such solicitation. The Company will request brokers and nominees who hold shares of Common Stock in their names to furnish proxy materials to beneficial owners of the shares and will reimburse such brokers and nominees for the reasonable expenses incurred in forwarding the materials to such beneficial owners.

The Company's bylaws provide that the holders of a majority of all of the shares of Common Stock issued, outstanding, and entitled to vote, whether present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. Shares that are voted "FOR", or "AGAINST", as applicable, with respect to a matter are treated as being present at the meeting for purposes of establishing a quorum and are also treated as shares entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting with respect to such matter. If a broker, bank, custodian, nominee, or other record holder of shares indicates on a proxy that it does not have the discretionary authority to vote certain shares on a particular matter ("broker non-vote"), then those shares will not be considered entitled to vote with respect to that matter, but will be counted in determining the presence of a quorum.

All shares represented by valid proxies received prior to the Annual Meeting will be voted and, where a stockholder specifies by means of the proxy how the shares are to be voted with respect to any matter to be acted upon, the shares will be voted in accordance with the specification so made. If the stockholder fails to so specify, except for broker non-votes, the shares will be voted "FOR" the election of the Board's nominees as directors.

J. Brian Patsy and Eric S. Lombardo, directors and the co-founders of LanVision and two other of the directors of the Company, together beneficially own 4,440,200 shares of Common Stock. Blue Chip Capital Fund Limited Partnership ("Blue Chip") beneficially owns 746,000 shares of Common Stock. Z. David Patterson, one of the directors of the Company, is Executive Vice President of Blue Chip Venture Company, the General Partner of Blue Chip. Messrs. Patsy and Lombardo, and Blue Chip, constituting a majority of the shares necessary for a quorum to transact business at the Annual Meeting, have each indicated that they intend to vote for the election of all those nominated by the Board for election as directors. For information regarding the ownership of Common Stock by holders of more than five percent of the outstanding shares and by the management of the Company, see "Stock Ownership by Certain Beneficial Owners and Management."

In accordance with Delaware law, a list of stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will be available at the Annual Meeting at the Heritage Room of the Clarion Hotel and Suites Cincinnati, 5901 Pfeiffer Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45242, on May 26, 2004, and for ten days prior to the Annual Meeting, between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Eastern Time, at the office of the Company.

PROPOSAL 1 — ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the Annual Meeting, the stockholders will elect five directors, comprising the entire membership of the Board, each to hold office until a successor is duly elected and qualified at the 2005 annual meeting of stockholders of the Company or otherwise or until any earlier resignation or removal. Shares represented by the accompanying proxy will be voted for the election of the five nominees recommended by the Board, unless the proxy is marked in such a manner as to withhold authority to vote. All nominees for election are currently serving as members of the Board and have consented to continue to serve. If any nominee for any reason is unable to serve or will not serve, the proxies may be voted for such substitute nominee as the proxyholder may determine. The Company is not aware of any nominee who will be unable or unwilling to serve as a director. LanVision has not implemented a formal policy regarding director attendance at the Annual Meeting. Typically, the Board holds its annual organizational meeting directly following the Annual Meeting, which results in most directors being able to attend the Annual Meeting. All five directors attended the 2003 Annual Meeting and it is the current intention that all Directors will attend the 2004 Annual Meeting.

Provided a quorum is duly constituted at the Annual Meeting, the affirmative vote by the holders of a plurality of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors is required to approve the election of directors. A broker non-vote and a withheld vote are not counted for purposes of electing the directors and will have no effect on the election. The Company's Chief Financial Officer, will serve as the inspector of election for the election of the directors.

Nominees For Election As Directors

The following incumbent directors are being nominated by the Board for reelection to the Board for a one year term: George E. Castrucci, Richard C. Levy, M.D., Eric S. Lombardo, J. Brian Patsy, and Z. David Patterson. The Board recommends a vote "FOR" the election of each of the nominees.

Prior to his retirement in March 1992, he served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Great American Broadcasting Company, a Cincinnati, Ohio based broadcasting company, and as President and Chief Operating Officer of its parent company, Great American Communications Company. Mr. Castrucci also currently serves as a director of Ohio National Mutual Holdings and its subsidiaries.

He also serves as Chief Financial Officer of Vanguard Medical, Inc., a specialty practice group.

Z. David Patterson, age 67, has been an Executive Vice President of Blue Chip Venture Company, the general partner of Blue Chip Capital Fund Limited Partnership, since 1992. He has served as Director of the Company or its predecessor since December 1994.

There are no family relationships among any of the above named nominees for director or among any of the nominees and any executive officers of the Company.

The Board of Directors has determined that the three non-employee directors are independent as that term is currently defined in The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. Marketplace Rules.

Director Compensation

The Company currently pays Messrs. Castrucci, Levy and Patterson directors' fees of (i) $1,000 for each regularly scheduled Board meeting attended, and (ii) $1,000 per day for each special meeting or committee meeting attended on days when there are no Board meetings. Messrs. Patsy and Lombardo are officers of the Company and are not separately compensated as directors of the Company.

Non-employee members of the Board are also eligible to participate in the Company's 1996 Non-Employee Directors Stock Option Plan (the "Directors Plan"). The Directors Plan provides for the granting of non-qualified stock options to directors who are not employees of the Company to enable the Company to attract and retain high quality non-employee directors. Options for a total of 100,000 shares of Common Stock may be granted under the Directors Plan prior to February 8, 2006. Options may be granted under the Directors Plan by the Company at such times as may be determined by the Board's Compensation Committee. Currently, 20,000 options have been granted under the Directors Plan to Mr. Castrucci, 15,000 options to Dr. Levy and 15,000 options to Mr. Patterson who has assigned his options to the Blue Chip Capital Fund Limited Partnership as required by the terms of the fund's partnership agreement. The Company also granted Mr. Castrucci an additional 5,000 options outside of the Directors Plan at the time he first agreed to serve as a director for the Company as further inducement for him to serve as a director.

LanVision has provided liability insurance for its directors and officers since 1996. The current policies expire on April 26, 2004. The annual cost of this coverage is approximately $95,500. Upon expiration, the current policies will be renewed or replaced with at least equivalent coverage.

Communications with the Board of Directors

Stockholders may communicate with the Board of Directors, including the management directors, by sending a letter to LanVision Systems, Inc. Board of Directors, c/o The Corporate Secretary, 5481 Creek Road, Cincinnati, OH 45242-4001. All communications directed to the Board of Directors will be transmitted promptly to all of the directors without any editing or screening by the Corporate Secretary.

Board of Directors Meetings and Committees

The Board met twelve times during fiscal year 2003. Standing committees of the Board currently include an audit committee and a compensation committee.

The Board does not have a nominating committee as the Board of Directors has determined that it is not necessary and would have no direct benefit, at this time, because of: the small size of the Company; the size of the current Board of Directors; and the low turn over of Board Members. All nominees for election are currently serving as members of the Board, and were nominated by unanimous vote of the current Board. The Board is not considering, at this time, increasing the number of directors or nominating new members to the Board of Directors.

In fiscal year 2003, all directors attended all meetings of the Board and all committee meetings of the committees on which such directors served during the period for which each such director has been a director.

The independent directors, Messrs. Patterson (Chairman), Castrucci, and Levy, are presently the members of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee met separately as a committee two times during fiscal year 2003. The Audit Committee also met as part of the whole Board of Directors to review each of the Company's quarterly financial statements filed on Form 10-Q, prior to the filing of those reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Audit Committee Chairman separately discusses the Company's financial reports with the auditors on a regular periodic basis. The Audit Committee's functions include the engagement of the Company's independent auditors, review of the results of the audit engagement and the Company's financial results, review of the Company's financial statements by the independent auditors and their opinion thereon, review of the auditors' independence, review of the effectiveness of the Company's internal controls and similar functions and approval of all auditing and non-auditing service performed by the independent auditors for the Company. The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. George E. Castrucci is an audit committee financial expert for the Company and is independent as that term is currently defined in The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. Marketplace Rules.

The independent directors, Messrs. Castrucci (Chairman), Patterson, and Levy, are presently the members of the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee met four times during fiscal year 2003. The Compensation Committee reviews the performance of and establishes the salaries and all other compensation of the Company's executive officers. The Compensation Committee also administers the Company's 1996 Employee Stock Option Plan, the Company's 1996 Non-Employee Directors Stock Option Plan, and the Company's 1996 Stock Purchase Plan and is responsible for recommending grants of stock options under such plans, subject to the approval of the Board.

The independent directors of the Board regularly meet in "Executive Session" as part of each regularly scheduled Board Meeting and no presiding director has been designated to conduct the "Executive Sessions".

The Audit Committee has established procedures through which confidential complaints may be made by employees, directly to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, regarding: illegal or fraudulent activity; questionable accounting, internal controls or auditing matters; conflicts of interest, dishonest or unethical conduct; disclosures in the Company's Securities and Exchange Commission filings that are not accurate; violations of LanVision's Code of Conduct and Ethics; or any other matters.

Code of Conduct and Ethics

The Board of Directors has adopted the LanVision, Systems, Inc. Code of Conduct and Ethics which may be found on the Company's website at www.lanvision.com.

The employment agreements will also provide that during the term of the agreement, and for a period of two years thereafter the employee will not compete with the Company in the healthcare information systems industry, including serving as an employee, officer, director, consultant, stockholder, or general partner of any entity other than the Company. In addition, the employee will agree to assign to the Company all of his interest in any developments, discoveries, inventions, and certain other interests developed by him during the course of employment with the Company, and not to use or disclose any proprietary information of the Company at any time during or after the course of employment with the Company.

Mr. Bridge has a severance arrangement with the Company that, in the event of a change in control resulting in the termination of employment or a decrease in pay or responsibility, or termination without cause, he is entitled to severance equal to three-fourths of his total annual compensation. Mr. Bridge also entered into a standard employment agreement similar to that described for Mr. Vick below.

Mr. Vick, upon his initial employment with the Company, entered into a standard employment agreement that all LanVision employees enter into. The agreement has no term and the Company, at will, upon 14 day's prior written notice, can terminate employment. The agreement contains usual and customary provisions related to compensation, employee benefits, nondisclosure of trade secrets, research and development, restrictions on employment by a competitor, solicitation of Company employees or customers and return of company property.

Compensation Committee Report

For fiscal year 2003, the Compensation Committee of the Board was at all times comprised entirely of non-employee independent directors. The Compensation Committee met four times during fiscal year 2003 and is charged with responsibility for reviewing the performance and establishing the compensation of the Company's executive officers on an annual basis. The Compensation Committee also administers the Company's 1996 Employee Stock Option Plan, the Company's 1996 Non-Employee Directors Stock Option Plan, and the Company's 1996 Stock Purchase Plan and is responsible for recommending grants of stock options under such plans, unless otherwise directed by the Board.

The compensation plans provide for each executive officer: an annual salary, a performance-based annual bonus incentive, and a potential for discretionary bonuses, stock options (excluding Messrs. Patsy and Lombardo) in order to provide long-term incentives, and ensure that management's long-term interests are aligned with those of other stockholders, and severance arrangements for certain executive officers as noted above. The goal of the committee with regard to compensation is to provide a structure that is competitive with other comparably sized technology companies. The compensation plans for Mr. Patsy, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and President, Mr. Lombardo, the Company's Executive Vice President were virtually the same for fiscal year 2003 as they were for fiscal years 2002, except for an increase in Mr. Patsy's and Mr. Lombardo's base salary and bonus potential in fiscal year 2003 and an increase in the base salary and bonus potential of Mr. Bridge and Mr. Vick in fiscal year 2003. The fiscal year 2001 and 2002 bonuses targets were based upon management's ability to improve the Company's results of operations. The fiscal year 2003 bonus target was based upon management's ability to achieve specific operating results. If the results of operations targets were achieved, then each Executive Officer would receive a specified percentage of a targeted bonus amount established by the Compensation Committee for each Executive Officer. If the target was exceeded, the bonus payable would be a multiple of the excess percent. If the target was not met, the bonus payable would be reduced by a multiple of the percent missed. In 2003 no bonuses were payable until 80% of the target results of operations were achieved. No Bonuses were earned in fiscal year 2003.

In 2002, the Compensation Committee engaged the firm of Towers Perrin to conduct an executive compensation and benefits review of appropriate salary ranges, as well as management incentive plan ranges, etc. Based, in part, on this review as well revenue and earnings results, the ability to achieve strategic business plans and goals, and evaluations of overall performance, the committee adjusted the total compensation including potential bonuses of the executive officers in 2003 and made additional adjustments, approximating a cost of living increase to some executives, in 2004.

The Compensation Committee believes that stock options can be an effective incentive to attract and retain Executive Officers and key employees of the Company and to encourage stock ownership by these persons so that they acquire or increase their proprietary interest in the success of the Company. The Compensation Committee has not granted any options to Messrs. Patsy or Lombardo in light of their existing substantial ownership in the Company.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The following non-employee directors serve on the Compensation Committee: George E. Castrucci, Richard C. Levy, M.D. and Z. David Patterson. No member of the Compensation Committee is or was an officer or employee of the Company or the subsidiary of the Company. No director or Executive Officer of the Company serves on any board of directors or compensation committee that compensates any member of the Compensation Committee.

Audit Committee Report

The Audit Committee, which operates under a Charter approved by the Board of Directors, and which was recently revised and is attached hereto as Appendix A, oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Committee reviewed the audited financial statements that are included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K with management, which review included a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Committee is comprised of the three independent non-employee directors of the Company and held two meetings during fiscal year 2003. The Committee reviewed with Ernst & Young LLP, the independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Committee under generally accepted auditing standards. In particular, the Committee has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP those matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees) and the required communications required by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

Ernst & Young LLP also provided to the Committee the written disclosures required by Independent Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the Committee discussed the independent auditors' independence with the auditors themselves.

The Committee discussed with the Company's independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their audit. The Committee meets with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2004 as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Committee has selected Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for fiscal year 2004.

The Audit Committee approved and recommended to the Board of Directors the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as auditors of LanVision's Financial Statements for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2003. In addition, the Audit Committee preapproved the payment of up to $90,700 in audit fees for the above audit and an additional payment of up to $47,000 for tax fees that includes the preparation and review of various tax returns required to be filed by LanVision and $5,000 for consulting services relating to compliance with the Sarbanes-

Oxley Act of 2002. It is the policy of the Audit Committee to preapprove all services provided by Ernst & Young LLP. The Committee also concluded that Ernst & Young LLP's provision of non-audit services, as described above, to LanVision is compatible with Ernst & Young LLP's independence.

- oversee management's establishment and enforcement of financial policies and business practices; and
- engage, compensate, oversee, evaluate and, if appropriate, terminate the independent auditor's.

Responsibilities

In carrying out its responsibilities, the Audit Committee believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible, in order to best react to changing requirements and conditions and to ensure to the directors and shareholders that the corporate accounting and reporting practices of the Company are in accordance with all requirements and are of the highest quality.

In carrying out these responsibilities, the Audit Committee will:

- Obtain the full Board of Directors' approval of this Charter and review and reassess this Charter as conditions dictate but at least annually.

The Chairman of the Audit Committee may represent the entire Audit Committee for purposes of this review.
- Review the financial statements contained in the annual report to shareholders with management and the independent auditors to determine that the independent auditors are satisfied with the disclosure and content of the financial statements to be presented to the shareholders. Review with financial management and the independent auditors the results of their timely analysis of significant financial reporting issues and practices, including changes in, or adoptions of, accounting principles and disclosure practices, and discuss any other matters required to be communicated to the committee by the auditors. Also review with financial management and the independent auditors their judgments about the quality, not just acceptability, of accounting principles and the clarity of the financial disclosure practices used or proposed to be used, and particularly, the degree of aggressiveness or conservatism of the organization's accounting principles and underlying estimates, and other significant decisions made in preparing the financial statements.

- Review accounting and financial human resources and succession planning within the Company.
- Report the results of the annual audit to the Board of Directors. If requested by the Board of Directors, invite the independent auditors to attend the full Board of Directors meeting to assist in reporting the results of the annual audit or to answer other directors' questions (alternatively, the other directors may be invited to attend the Audit Committee meeting during which the results of the annual audit are reviewed).
- On an annual basis, obtain from the independent auditors a written communication delineating all their relationships and professional services as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. nature and scope of any disclosed relationships or professional services and take, or recommend that the board of directors take, appropriate action to ensure the continuing independence of the auditors.

- Pre-approve all auditing services and permitted non-audit services to be performed for the Company by the independent auditors. The Committee shall establish policies and/or guidelines for the permissible scope and nature of any permitted non-audit services in connection with its annual review of the audit plan and shall review such policies and guidelines with the Board.

- Establish clear policies and/or guidelines for the Company's hiring of partners, employees or former partners or employees of the independent auditors.
- Obtain from the independent auditors any reports required to be furnished to the Committee under Section 10A of the Exchange Act or an assurance that Section 10A of the Exchange Act has not been implicated.
- Review and approve all related party transactions (the term "related party transaction" referring to transactions required to be disclosed pursuant to SEC Regulation S-K, Item 404, or any successor provision thereto).
- Establish procedures and require the Company to obtain or provide the necessary resources and mechanisms for (i) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and (ii) the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.
- Prepare the report of the Audit Committee in the Annual Meeting Proxy Statement disclosing whether or not the committee had reviewed and discussed with management and the independent auditors, as well as discussed within the Audit Committee (without management or the independent auditors present), the financial statements and the quality of accounting principles and significant judgments affecting the financial statements. In addition, disclose in the proxy statement that the Audit Committee has:
  1. reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management;
  2. discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by SAS No. 61;
  3. received certain disclosures from the auditors regarding the auditors' independence as required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, and discussed with the auditors the auditors' independence; and
  4. concluded whether, based on such review and discussions, anything has come to the attention of the members of the Audit Committee that caused the Audit Committee to believe that the audited financial statements included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year then ended contain an untrue statement of material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.
- Submit the minutes of all meetings of the Audit Committee to, or discuss the matters discussed at each committee meeting with, the Board of Directors.
- Investigate any matter brought to its attention within the scope of its duties, with the power to retain outside counsel for this purpose if, in its judgment, that is appropriate.
- To the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, to retain independent legal, accounting or other advisors. The Audit Committee shall also have the authority, to the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, to ask the Company to provide it with the support of one or more Company employees to assist it in carrying out its duties. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined solely by the Audit Committee, for payment of compensation to the independent auditors for the purpose of rendering or issuing an audit report and to any other advisors employed by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company or the Company's outside counsel, independent auditors or other advisors to attend a meeting of the Audit Committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Audit Committee.

- Review the Company's disclosure in the proxy statement for its annual meeting of shareholders that describes that the Committee has a charter and has satisfied its responsibilities under this Charter for the prior year. In addition, include a copy of this Charter in the appendix to the proxy statement at least triennially or the year after any significant amendment to the Charter.
