Item 1. Changes in Control of Registrant.

- Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.
- Item 3. Bankruptcy or Receivership.
- Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.
- Item 5. Other Events.

On November 24, 1999, pursuant to an oral hearing held on November 18, 1999, the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications panel determined to transfer the listing of LanVision Systems, Inc. to The Nasdaq SmallCap Market pursuant to an exception to the bid price and net tangible asset requirements. The exception required the Company to evidence a minimum of $3,200,000 in net tangible assets as of January 31, 2000. In addition, on or before February 15, 2000, the Company must make a public filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission and Nasdaq evidencing a minimum of $3,200,000 in net tangible assets. The filing must contain a balance sheet no older than 45 days, including pro forma adjustments for any significant events or transactions occurring on or before the filing date. Accordingly, attached as exhibit 99 is the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Pro Forma Balance Sheet of LanVision Systems, Inc. as of January 31, 2000. The Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Pro Forma Balance Sheet reflects approximately $3,700,000 in net tangible assets.

The accompanying Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Pro Forma Balance Sheet has been prepared by the Company without audit, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information, pursuant to the rules and regulations applicable to quarterly reports on Form 10-Q of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, it does not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for a complete Balance Sheet presentation. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation of the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Pro Forma Balance Sheet have been included. This Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Pro Forma Balance Sheet should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto included in the LanVision Systems, Inc., fiscal year 1998, Annual Report on Form 10-K, Commission File Number 0-28132

A summary of the Company's significant accounting policies is presented beginning on page 21 of its 1998 Annual Report to Stockholders. Users of financial information for interim periods are encouraged to refer to the footnotes contained in the Annual Report to Stockholders when reviewing interim financial results. There has been no material change in the accounting policies followed by the Company during fiscal 1999.

"Safe Harbor" statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995:

Statements made by LanVision that are not historical facts are forward looking statements that are subject to risks and uncertainties. LanVision's future financial performance could differ materially from expectations of management and from results reported now or in the past. Factors that could cause LanVision's financial performance to so differ include, but are not limited to, the impact of competitive products and pricing, product development, reliance on strategic alliances, availability of products procured from third party vendors, the healthcare regulatory environment, fluctuations in operating results, and other risks detailed from time to time in LanVision's filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange commission.

Notes:

On January 20, 2000, the Company entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement ("The Agreement") to sell its Virtual Healthware Services division's centralized data center. Under the terms of The Agreement, the buyer agreed to pay LanVision $2,900,000 and assume certain liabilities. The transaction closed on February 11, 2000. The Company received $2,000,000 at the time of the closing and a $900,000 promissory note from the buyer, which is payable in twelve equal monthly installments beginning March 1, 2000. During the first quarter of Fiscal 2000, the Company will record an approximately $1,400,000 gain on the sale. Simultaneous with the sale, the Company entered into a services agreement with the buyer. Under the terms of this service agreement, in exchange for processing fees, the Company can use the data center to provide outsourcing services to LanVision customers.

In connection with the above sale, the Company's lender amended the loan agreement to require, among other new covenants, that the Company maintain a minimum cash and investments balance of $4,400,000, increasing to $5,300,000 as the $900,000 note receivable is collected from the purchaser of the data center.

Included in the above Accounts Receivable is $1,800,000 due from one of the Company's customers. Approximately $900,000 was paid prior to the filing of the above Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Pro Forma Balance Sheet and has been included in the pro forma entries.
